Gold Circle Awards: Scholastic Recipients

NEW YORK, NY - The Columbia Scholastic Press Association announces the winners from its 32nd Gold Circle Awards program. For the newspaper, magazine, yearbooks and digital media categories this year attracted 11,110 entries produced by students at colleges, universities and secondary schools throughout the United States.

Entries were accepted from student yearbooks and digital media publications published from November 2, 2013 through October 10, 2014. Student journalists working on these print or electronic media chose from 78 newspaper categories, 34 magazines, 42 yearbook categories and 51 digital media categories for individual or staff entries.

Judges cited a total of 1471 winners for either First, Second or Third Place or for Certificates of Merit for those deemed worthy of honorable mention in a category. Entry categories included those for newspapers, magazines, yearbooks and for digital (online) media, in its annual competition for individual achievement by student writers, editors, designers and photographers.

For the current 2015-2016 academic year, the entries for yearbook and all digital entries categories are due to be postmarked to the CSPA by October 13th. They will be judged during January and announced in February 2016.
