Awards for Student Work

Gold Circle Awards: Scholastic Recipients

The Columbia Scholastic Press Association announces the winners from its 35th Gold Circle Awards program. This year, these categories attracted 4,979 yearbook and digital media entries and 6,514 print news and magazines for a grand total of 11,493 entries submitted in 166 categories.

These entries come from publications produced by students at colleges, universities, and secondary schools through the United States and abroad who follow an American education plan.

Entries for print newspaper and magazines published from June 13, 2017 to June 11, 2018 were eligible for consideration in the 51 newspaper and 35 magazine categories.

Because CSPA dates its awards by the year in which they were given, the yearbook and digital media awards below are the 2018 awards, even though published in 2016-2017. Individual entries from 2018 yearbooks and digital media from 2017-2018 are still being judged and will be announced in January 2019.

Entries were accepted from student yearbooks and digital media publications published from October 11, 2016 through October 10, 2017, with winners previously announced in March 2018. Student journalists working on these print or electronic media chose from 39 yearbook categories and 41 digital media categories.

In summary, judges cited a total of 655 winners for yearbook and digital media and 720 for print newspaper and magazine for either First, Second or Third Place or for Certificates of Merit for those deemed worthy of honorable mention in a category. Entry categories included those for yearbooks and for digital (online) media, in its annual competition for individual achievement by student writers, editors, designers and photographers.

Congratulations to all of our winners!
