PRESS ASSOCIATION

2022

Awards for Student Work

Gold Circle Awards: Scholastic Recipients

The Columbia Scholastic Press Association announces the winners from its 39th Gold Circle Awards program. This year, these categories attracted 4,132 entrants in yearbook and digital media. It also attracted 4,224 entrants in print news and print magazine.

These entries come from publications produced by students at colleges, universities, and secondary schools through the United States and overseas who follow an American education plan.

Entries were accepted from student yearbooks and digital media publications published from October 2, 2020 through October 12, 2021.

Entries were accepted from student print newspapers and magazines published from June 11, 2021 through June 10, 2022. Student journalists working on these print or electronic media chose from 51 print news categories and 35 print magazine categories.

In summary, judges cited a total of 606 winners for yearbook and digital media and 690 for print news and print magazines for either First, Second or Third Place or for Certificates of Merit (honorable mention) in a category.

Congratulations to all of our winners!
